TWO WEDDINGS ON YESTERDAY.

One at a Limestone Street Home—Another at the M. E. Church, South.

At four o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents on Limestone street was solemnized the marriage of Lud M. Mills and Miss Mattie Cady. It was a quiet home wedding, none but the relatives of the couple being present. Immediately after the ceremony they left for a short bridal tour. They would only say that their destination was Westward. Elder C. S. Lucas was the officiating minister.

Lud M. Mills has long been identified with the building and manufacturing interests of Mayville, at the present being Superintendent at the Mayville Manufacturing Company's Works. His record as an upright Christian gentleman in this community speaks for itself.

Miss Mattie Cady, his bride, is also well and most favorably known. She is a devoted member of the Christian Church, and is an excellent lady.

AN hour earlier, at three o'clock, the M. E. Church, South, was the scene of another happy affair of like nature. There occurred the nuptials of Marion P. Hill of Dayton, and Miss Adelle Pearl Sutton.

Interest was added to the occasion by it being the first wedding that has occurred in the new church.

The four ushers were Harry Barkley, Ben T. Cox, James Wood and Addison White of this county. There were no lady attendants, the ushers preceding the contracting parties to the altar. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Wright, Pastor of the Church.

The groom, Marion P. Hill, lives in Dayton, and by occupation is a painter. The bride, Adelle Pearl Sutton, is a most charming young lady who has many friends and admirers in Mayville, where she has spent most of her life. She has for several years been a teacher in the High School.

The newlywed couple left yesterday afternoon for their future home at Dayton.

No Paper Tuesday!

THE LEDGER desires that its employees shall enjoy the Fourth to its fullest extent. And the greatest part of the work on a daily newspaper must be done the day previous to publication, if the paper appear on Tuesday our employees would be obliged to work the greater part of Monday. Therefore, we will furnish our patrons with a souvenir copy early on the Fourth, and let the very best of the balance of the day go to the winds.

Mason, Bracken, Fleming, Lewis and Greenup in one District—the Nineteenth. CINCINNATI is not exempt from the trouble experienced elsewhere in securing labor for boats. Other work is so plentiful that rowsters and laborers demand an increase in wages before they will go out on boats. As a result, it is no uncommon thing for boats to leave port with only half a crew, and sometimes not at all. The only harm done is serious inconvenience to the officers and managers of the boats.

GEORGE A. TROTTER runs a carpet-beating establishment in Cincinnati and a wife-beating establishment in Bellevue. The kind-hearted Kentucky Magistrate poor him only $10 for kicking his wife in the head, tearing nearly all her clothes off, and, incredible as it may seem, stamping upon the prostrate form of the one whom he had promised to love and protect. He wound up his brutal treatment by kicking her on the arm, breaking that member between the wrist and elbow.

There will be two races at the picnic to be given by the P. O. S. A. at the Fair Grounds July 4th. The following are the entries:

OUR WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

Condition of the Small Crops Throughout Kentucky Up to Yesterday.

The average temperature of the past week was considerably in excess of the normal, though this is attributable to the excessive heat of the first four days, as the remainder of the week showed a nearly normal temperature.

The rainfall was slightly deficient in most sections of the state, except in the Bluegrass counties and a few places in the extreme Western section. The showers were, however, very uniformly distributed and were very beneficial to all crops, particularly to corn and tobacco.

Both of these are now doing finely as a rule, though corn is still somewhat weedy in places and tobacco would be further improved with more rain.

The wheat harvest is virtually completed, and from all parts of the state come the most favorable reports of the crop. Though some complaint of slight injury from smut is made, the yield is probably the best in many years. Gardens and grasses were never better and the oat crop generally promises well and is ripening rapidly.

From the present outlook, the prospect is for less than an average crop of late fruits. Potatoes are reported to be in the finest condition in all parts of the state.

MICHAEL FOLEY of Cincinnati, a passenger of the steamer Tenebris, while the boat was nearing Vaneburg, was knocked on the head and relieved of a clock for $350 and about $15 in cash. When discovered by some of the boat's officers he was unconscious, and was bleeding profusely from a large cut on the side of his head, which indicated that he had been struck by some blunt instrument. He was so weak from loss of blood that it was thought best to put him off at Buena Vista, where he is now being cared for. He was joined there by his wife and daughter. After regaining consciousness he was questioned regarding the affair and stated that it was a white man, whom he believed was an Italian, who felled him. Although the wound on his head is a very serious one, it is thought he will recover. Foley had $350 in his boot which the thief failed to get.

THE YOUNG LADIES ENTERTAIN

At the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Finch Last Evening.

The Finch home was again the scene of "sway by night" last evening. This time it was something of an innovation in society. Leap year grants to the gentle sex the opportunity to display their powers as entertainers. Very notably did they succeed indeed, for not only did they wear the masculine garb but as "men," they smelt such upon previous occasions have been derelict in their duty to them.

The handsome home of Miss Finch was ablaze with light and glory. Not only so, but the flashing eyes of our young ladies shone even more resplendent than those artificial means. From nook and corner, from mantel and vase, beautiful flowers reared their heads, roses and sweet ferns, bending well from beveled mirrors reflecting their glory in sweetest way.

The colored orchestra, hidden by plants and ferns, discoursed delicious music. The strains were reminiscent of a grand ball we read of in its olden time, where chivalric men and beautiful maidens tripped through the graceful minuet.

The spacious porches were hung with Japanese lanterns, which made the tete-a-tete more delightful, because of the inspirations they gave.

Who can tell but more darts may fall from Cupid's bow.

Not the least of our young men low. For leap-year gives a time most opportune for the young ladies to get their revenge.

For reasons obvious, the men were scarce and there is one in the moon.

During the evening refreshing ices were served by that popular caterer, Traxel, who doeth all things well. Not until 2 o'clock did the gay company break up, the men loud in their praise of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Finch and the young ladies who so gallantly did the masculine act.

Who took who?

Miss Wall, Horace Cochran.

Miss Johnson, Hal Curran.

Miss Rosa Pickett, Will Curran.

Mrs. Frank Mannen, her husband.

Mrs. Will Cochran, her husband.

And make them doubly sure.
